Zach Jacobson Featured Across Florida Media for Benjamin Franklin Collection

07.14.2026 | NEWS

Gunster's Zach Jacobson was recently featured across a wide range of Florida television, radio, and online outlets for his Benjamin Franklin artifact collection. The coverage highlights the exhibit, "Benjamin Franklin: Creating an American Icon," which opened on July 6 at the Historical Society of Palm Beach County and runs through August 31 in honor of America's 250th anniversary. The collection features more than 120 items owned by Zach and his brother, including Franklin's grandfather clock, original portraits, medallions, and books printed by or about Franklin.

In an interview about the exhibit, Jacobson explained why he hopes families will visit: "I think it would be great to have people bring kids out. To learn about the founding era from documents from that time, you really get to see what the founders were thinking, why they included certain language in our founding documents."

Behind Zach's Collection: The roots of this collection trace back to Zach's childhood. What began as a youthful curiosity grew into a lifelong pursuit. The brothers started by carefully acquiring pieces from their stepfather's collection, and over the years, their passion led them cross the country and around the world in search of rare and historically significant items.

Zach's Legal Practice: Zach Jacobson is an attorney in the firm's West Palm Beach office. His practice is focused on representing and advising developers, property owners and lenders in a variety of real estate transactions including the acquisition, development, construction, disposition, leasing, and financing of commercial and residential properties.
